

THE POWER OF THE 6PS

Representing the African American Child and Dismantling the Poverty, School Dropout and Prison Pipelines

The purpose of this video course is to educate and promote an understanding of the affects of deprivation and delinquency in African American children. We will examine the history and effectiveness of juvenile courts and family court proceedings as well as the best interest of the child standard. Participants will also look at the hidden injustices associated with prosecuting and advocating for African American children. The goal is to promote best practices for advocating for African American children.
