

JUST US: UNDERSTANDING
JUVENILE URBAN SEX TRAFFICKING IN THE UNITED STATES
Post Video Self-Assessment

G1. What is JUST US and give examples of a victim of JUST US?

G2. Are public defenders properly trained to deal with the complexities of JUST victims?

G3 Should victims of JUST be referred to CPS/DFASC or taken into custody?

G4. Have juvenile justice advocates been diligent in the decriminalization of child prostitution?

G5. JustUS goes beyond the DMST and CSEC process. Do you know the difference?

G6. According to the Missing and Exploited Children since 2010, 64,000 black girls are missing. What has NGOs, mainstream media and Foundations done to address this plight?

G7. Sexual abuse of NAI and Indigenous girls are seldom covered by the media. What can the NGOs and legal community do to address the media regarding? What changes are needed and how will changes be implemented?

G8. The media is controlled by white males. The characteristics of JUST Johns [purchasers of sex] or Tricks are white male, professionals between the age of 40-55. Is this a factor in media bias?

G9. Would ending the use of the term child prostitute also end awareness of the truth of its existence?

G10. Nonprofits have become a multibillion dollar per year operation. Over the years, the plights of AfrAm children have been researched with little or no change in circumstances. What steps should be taken to ensure real change in the outcome children and families?
